During practice days 3 and 4, shoulder pads should be worn, but no full contact. (Recommended guidelines from USA Youth Tackle Football.)

From there the teams will be made equal by age then after a flip of a coin the draft will begin one grade at a time. For example, if one group of coaches has three 5th graders as coaches children and the other team has two 6th graders and one 5th grader, the first coach will get first pick of two 6th graders and the second coach will get first pick of two 5th graders to make the age count equal prior to the beginning of the draft. Then a coin will be flipped to see who drafts first from the 5th grade until all the 5th graders have been drafted. Another coin will be flipped prior to the drafting of the remaining 6th graders until all players are drafted.
